Summary:

On August 31, 2011, about 10:40 P.M., an unidentified white male adult robbed the Rite Aid Pharmacies, located at 7100 Avenida Encinas, Carlsbad, CA, 92010. The suspect entered the store and handed a demand note to the pharmacist demanding prescription drugs. The suspect, who was wearing a black ski mask, indicated that he had a handgun under his shirt. The suspect left the store and fled west through the parking lot. Officers arrived on scene and unsuccessfully searched the area for the suspect. The suspect is described as a white male in his 20's to 30's. He is approximately 5'6"-5'8", skinny build weighing 130-145 pounds. His clothing was described as a black hooded sweat shirt, green T-shirt, blue jeans, and a black ski mask. The number of items taken during the robbery has not yet been determined. This investigation is ongoing.
